MINISTER'S LETTER

Do you enjoy church?

An article by Revd Sarah Lawrence

As a minister, part of me thinks people should enjoy church; we put enough work into making it engaging and stimulating. I think of the late nights preparing sermons with interesting stories and funny analogies. When I am preparing a service, I think carefully to make sure it engages people on different levels.

But then I stop for a moment and ask myself, do I enjoy church? It may seem like an odd question: I am a priest, of course I do! But if I'm honest, my experiences of churchgoing have had highs and lows with much monotony and routine in between. The truth is, I don't go to enjoy myself; I go because there is something deep inside me compelled to seek God, something which has been bitten by the bug of knowing him. Most of the time I guess my churchgoing is pretty unremarkable, it's not often that I come away deeply moved or elated, or even disturbed or challenged. But it happens enough to keep me coming, keep me seeking.

C S Lewis talks of a sense of being drawn by these glimpses of something beyond. His book The Pilgrim's Regress follows the spiritual quest of John, compelled to leave his stifling home in search of something better. He is drawn by a sense of longing he experienced as a child when he glimpsed a far-away island. It made him realise that there is something beyond the narrow confines of the life he had known. This glimpse of the divine is what keeps drawing me back to church.

I have had glimpses of the divine in charismatic services, carried away in worship, speaking in tongues, hands in the air; and I have had these glimpses kneeling before the blessed sacrament in silent contemplation, as the scent of incense wafts by and spirals up to heaven. But the outward things are not where joy is found. These same outward things can seem profound and beautiful to one person at one time, yet at another they can appear ridiculous or boring. Ultimately the thing that really matters in church, encountering God, is something which only comes from God. The Spirit is not a caged bird, she comes and goes at will, all we can do is open to her.

People may come to church if they enjoy it and for that it is worth all those late nights and careful thought to make services engaging. But it is only the deep joy encountering God which will really draw people from the heart to seek him. People may love church services, they may hate them, they may be bored by them, but ultimately they will keep coming because the heart that seeks God will seek everywhere and anywhere.

This is an edited article from magnet magazine (www.ourmagnet.co.uk) which was published in The Sign in 2019.

A Prayer by Bishop Thomas Ken (1637-1711)

O God, make the door of this Church wide enough to receive all who need human love and fellowship, and a heavenly Father's care;
and narrow enough to shut out all envy, pride and hate.
Make its threshold smooth enough to be no stumbling-block to children, or to straying feet,
but rugged enough
to turn back the tempter's power:
make it a gateway to thine eternal kingdom.
Amen

NEW MAGAZINE EDITOR NEEDED

We would love to hear from anyone interested in taking over the role of 'Shelswell News' editor. All the advertising is handled from the Benefice Office so you do not need to deal with this, and you would rarely need to draft any material yourself. Your role would be to receive the material from parish correspondents and the representatives of clubs and societies (by email) and collate this to fit the page layout of the magazine. New ideas for articles, features or series are always welcome. For an informal chat about what might be involved please call Alice on 01280 848192.

A Harvest Home Celebration – save the date!

11 am - Sunday 24th September - Waterloo Farm, Fringford

On the morning of the harvest home dinner everybody prepared themselves for a tremendous feast, some to the extent of going without breakfast, that the appetite might not be impaired. And what a feast it was! Such a bustling in the farm-house kitchen for days beforehand; such boiling of hams and roasting of sirloins; such a stacking of plum puddings; such a tapping of eighteen-gallon casks and baking of plum loaves. By noon the whole parish had assembled, the workers and their wives and children to feast and the sprinkling of the better-to-do to help with the serving. Long tables were laid out of doors in the shade of a barn, and soon after twelve o'clock the cottagers sat down to the good cheer, with the farmer carving at the principal table, his wife with her tea urn at another, the daughters of the house and their friends circling the tables with vegetable dishes and beer jugs, and the grandchildren, in their stiff, white, embroidered frocks, dashing hither and thither to see that everybody had what they required. As a background there was the rickyard with its new yellow stacks and, over all, the mellow sunshine of late summer.

from Lark Rise to Candleford – Flora Thompson

After the Plough Sunday service in January, which saw 100 people gathering at Monks House Farm, several people said 'why don't you do something like this at Harvest?'. And so we are doing just that, because it is all so much more fun when there are more of us gathered together!

David and Phillippa Taylor have very kindly agreed to host a Harvest Festival and Harvest lunch in their party barn and everyone is invited! We are still working out the details, but there will be something for everyone, young and old. The harvest lunch will feature locally sourced produce, which I am confident will be absolutely delicious, and some local beer!

Some of the churches are also holding their own harvest festival and you are very welcome to go to those as well!

GOD IN THE SCIENCES

By Dr Ruth M Banciewicz, who is Church Engagement Director at The Faraday Institute for Science and Religion in Cambridge. Ruth writes on the positive relationship between Science and Christian faith.

Parable: The Strength of a Seed

At this time of year, we enjoy the fruits of our gardens, fields and hedgerows: vegetables ripen, crops are harvested, and berries begin to show bright among the leaves. Much of this growth started with a few seeds in spring: the miracle of life coming from small dead-looking things. There is a league table of long-lived seeds. The winners so far are from the narrow-leafed campion, buried by squirrels in the Siberian permafrost over 30,000 years ago. When those seeds finally germinated, they became healthy plants that flowered and produced seeds of their own.

The Bible contains many links between seeds and spiritual growth, and the parable of the sower is the most famous (in Matthew 13). A person may hear or experience something of God which has the potential to germinate into a life of following Him, resulting in the fruit of others coming to know God too. But things can happen that snatch that seed away, killing it before it has finished germinating, or choking its growth.

What about the knowledge of God that gets trampled, churned too deep in the mire of life to receive the warmth and light it needs to develop into faith? Buried seeds don't always die, but they can lie dormant, remaining alive but inactive until the earth is turned over. The possibility of that moment of connecting with something divine, scrap of knowledge, or snatch of conversation resulting in a changed life may seem infinitesimally small, but it's not zero. The seed may be incredibly tough, just waiting for a chance to grow.

The Gospel narrative plays on the fact that it took a long time for the disciples to understand the full implications of Jesus' teaching: a germination process that took many of them three or more years. They could have been discouraged, but Jesus was not. I don't think it's too much of a stretch to draw out of the parable of the sower to include the observation that it can take a long time, sometimes decades, for people to work their way through the various barriers, sticking points, and phases of forgetfulness that may keep them from following through on their spiritual experience. When we finally receive – or are open to – the encouragement, challenge, or experience that helps our faith in Christ grow, we can experience the rich fruit of a transformed life.

SHELLOWELL WI

For our July meeting we had a visit from Ashley Foster who works in the film industry as an animal handler and trainer. Ashley along with help from his assistants and also his dogs gave us a very interesting evening. We were able to see practical demonstrations from the dogs and watched a short film on how they trained other animals.

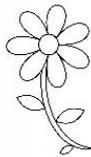

Our July walk was through Kingsmere green spaces and although slightly soggy was enjoyed by those who attended.

Our next meeting will be on Thursday 3 August. This is our annual walk, and this year is around Evenley.

As WI members we also have access to both the Oxford and National Federations of WI's both of which offer their members a wide range of trips, activities and learning opportunities.

If you would like to join us, we usually meet on the first Thursday of the month in Fringford Village Hall at 7.30pm.

For more information please contact Lesley Beagent on 07729605670

SHELLOWELL GARDEN CLUB

The Shelswell Garden Club Summer Outing took place on Sunday 2nd July and everyone had a lovely time. We travelled by minibus to a farm shop for coffee/refreshments then on to Teasels, Wilsford, near Amesbury. This was an amazing garden, on the banks of the River Avon. It seems a lot of money had been spent on it and it showed. The Filly poppies were beautiful.

Then it was on to the village of West Dean, near Salisbury. There were 12 gardens to visit - many with teas and cakes - how did we cope! Ordnance House was the main garden to visit. This was an attractive garden. However, some members felt it would have benefitted from some thinning out of plants to show the intended design more clearly. We all loved the small white rose, 'Little White Pet', which was used in many different areas and was good at linking all of these. Apparently, it flowers for months and is easy to propagate.

There were lots of interesting ideas in most of the gardens and the cakes were delicious. One member did plan to have a cake and tea in every garden but even she gave up after the second...there's only so much cake you can eat!

In August we take a break but will be back on September 12th with John Lee of Froggery Cottage talking about Penstemons. Hopefully he'll be bringing some to sell!

We welcome visitors to our club that normally meets at Hethe Village Hall at 7.30 pm on the second Tuesday of the month (apart from August). Meetings and outings are open to members and visitors, friends and relatives. Plants are for sale at most meetings and your membership card gives you discounts at Preston Bissett Nursery and Swallows Nursery in Mixbury. During winter months, some meetings may be held via Zoom. Annual fee is only £10!

For further information, call Sally Drummond Hay on 01280 848591 or Corrine Mitchell on 01869 247411 or email shelswellgardenclub@gmail.com

SHELLOWELL READING GROUP

The novel chosen for the July meeting was Home Fire by Kamila Shamsie. Based loosely on Sophocles' play Antigone, it poses hard questions about family loyalty, obedience to the law and moral priorities.

If you would like to join the group for the August or September meeting, please contact Jane Birnage on 01280 847 455 or at janebirnage@icloud.com

SHELLOWELL POETRY APPRECIATION GROUP

At our July meeting we looked at various aspects of freedom found in poems. We began the session with In the Same Boat by H. Crawford. Written in the early years of the 20th century, it is a (seemingly light-hearted but in fact bitter and resentful) protest by a poet bemoaning the fact that women were not allowed to vote, just like prisoners, lunatics and babies. This was followed by the poem The Tolpuddle Martyrs, written by one of their number, George Loveless whilst he was in the courtroom awaiting judgement.

The Flower of Liberty by Oliver Wendell Holmes is a joyful celebration of the freeing of slaves in America during the Civil War. We actually sang the Union song The Battle Cry of Freedom by George F. Root, lifting the roof with the chorus, and then looked at the copycat version sung by troops of the Confederacy. The Ragged Old Flag by Johnny Cash examines southern pride and details all the wars soldiers from the southern states have fought in.

Land of Hope and Glory by A C Benson was set to music by Elgar and is an iconic anthem, as is Rule, Britannia, written for inclusion in the masque Alfred by James Thompson and set to music by Thomas Arne.

Sagittarius, (the nom de plume of a writer for the Spectator), wrote a sharply witty description of the Labour Party in 1945 then 1947, making fun of the public's fear of red revolution and how it was calmed by the respectability and good breeding of the Labour Cabinet. It is an extract from the longer work Lest Cowards Flinch. In his poem England Autumn 1938, ASJ Tessimond balances what he sees as the glories and grave faults of a country which had not fallen under the control of repressive ideologies such as Communism and Fascism.

The Retreat from Dunkirk by B G Bonallack gives a matter-of-fact account of that episode in the Second World War which is moving when we remember that the men on the beaches were escaping back to a free country in order to fight another day. In Armistice Day 1918 Robert Graves caustically compares the jingoistic joy and licentious behaviour of a civilian crowd with the sacrifice made by the dead soldiers who fought for their freedom. Partition Day 1947 by W H Auden sums up the debacle caused by India gaining its freedom from the British Empire so precipitately and without due care and attention from its former rulers. The South African anthem Nkosi Sikelele Afrika has verses in four different languages – Xhosa, Sesutu, Afrikaans and English – and is used to wonderful effect, set to music, in the film Cry Freedom.

Three poems about personal and artistic freedom, and its costs, are Freedom is a Lonely Word by Sun Wenbo; Me and Bobby McGhee by Kris Kristofferson and Janis Joplin; and Caged Bird by Maya Angelou.

The loss of freedom suffered by zoo animals is addressed by two poets. The Jaguar and Lioness Asleep are by Ted Hughes and Babette Deutsch respectively.

Our next meeting will be on Tuesday August 8th and the theme is Desert Island Poems. Each member will bring three much-loved poems to read and discuss.

We're looking for more foster carers in Oxfordshire to provide a safe and secure home to a child when they are unable to live with their parents. It may be for a short period of time, or they may stay with a foster family long term.

Our foster carers receive:

- A welcome payment of £1,500, to help the transition to foster carer.
- Generous fees, paid in addition to the child's allowance.
- Dedicated social worker support.
- Access to professionals involved with the child, support groups and specialised training.

Make an enquiry here: <https://service.oxfordshire.gov.uk/fosteringenquiry>

Michelle and William Hunter from Oxford are new to fostering. Michelle said: "There are so many reasons to choose Oxfordshire County Council to begin your fostering journey.

"The council gave us lots of help, including having access to a social worker and a host of other support services. We feel part of a fostering community, making a positive difference to local children by helping them reach their full potential.

"Our advice to anyone thinking of fostering is to take your time to research and really think about it. There are lots of foster carers who would love to answer your questions, offering a realistic perspective of what fostering is like."

VILLAGE HALL

The village hall is now fully back in use and most of the regular users have resumed their scheduled events.

Since the arson attack last year, the hall has been completely re-decorated with a number of improved facilities added, including updated AV facilities with a new projector and large screen, new flooring and front and fire exit doors and enlarged storage spaces for regular users.

WiFi facilities have also been added.

For all bookings enquiries, please visit www.myfinmere.com/villagehall

Don't forget the monthly Tea & Cakes at the hall on the second Tuesday of each month.

Allotments

It is a hive of activity up at the Finmere allotments. Whilst it was good to see a bit of rain recently, maybe we (and many others) could have done with a little more gentle downpour.

Everything is now growing in earnest (unfortunately, including the weeds).

Not sure how the RHS recommended 'no-dig' allotment' 😊 ... No-Dig Gardening Guide | BBC Gardeners World Magazine, really works, since there still seems to be a lot of digging involved to keep the weeds, especially the thistles, at bay, to say nothing of the rabbits !

The Poor's Plot continues to have a small waiting list for allotment plots and there is always a possibility that a few plots may become available shortly, so any aspiring allotment users should visit

Hardwick Church New Guidebook

The new 2022 guidebook for Hardwick church and the parish of Hardwick with Tusmore is now available. This 44-page booklet has over 20 colour photos and provides a fascinating insight into the features and history of Hardwick church, the village and the Tusmore Estate. You can collect a copy from the church or contact David Barnes (01869 277690), who can send one to you. We ask that you make a minimum donation of £5 to church funds.

Pilgrim Pathways

Why not walk the Hethe to Hardwick to Cottisford to Hethe "Pilgrim Pathway". This is the first of what will be a network of walks between local religious sites being organised by the Bicester and Islip Deanery. This 4 mile circular route takes in the C of E churches of each of these villages as well as Holy Trinity, Hethe's RC church. You can start and end your walk at any point on the route, which takes in some glorious North Oxfordshire countryside. Pick up a free brochure outlining the route from any of the three C of E churches or contact David Barnes (01869 277690), who can send one to you.

HARDWICK CHURCH IS OPEN DAILY

Church Services and Events

See the back page for details of services in our church. You will be welcome at of these services and in other churches in the benefice, or if you are away from Shelswell area, you can find a nearby service through the web site <https://www.achurchnearyou.com>.

any the

The church is open every day for visits and private prayer.

Some of our PCC members will be providing food for the benefice wide service and BBQ at Evenley Wood on 20th August, so please come along if you can.

Arrangements have been made through the Parish Council for the northern area of the churchyard, which includes the newer graves and garden of remembrance, to be cut regularly. We are grateful to Andrew Cotton for mowing this area earlier in the year.

Many thanks to Jenny Cullen for volunteering to clean the church and provide flowers this month.

We know that most Hethe parishioners value the church as a historic building, a venue for those special lifetime events (such as baptisms and weddings) and the churchyard is a refuge for wildlife in the heart of the village. The visitors book in the church also shows that it is appreciated by visitors from far and wide. We were planning this year to repair the stained glass and surrounding stonework in the west window, followed by replastering and decoration, but unfortunately, we now have a damp problem which needs more urgent attention. The church is funded by the parish, therefore if you can contribute to this work and to ensure that it remains open and available, you may make a one-off gift through a single transaction or set up regular donations, using a debit or credit card, or Apple or Google Pay, using the secure Parish Giving (PGS) website - <https://www.parishgiving.org.uk/home/>.

100 Club. The club offers members an opportunity to contribute to church funds, while having the chance to win a cash prize from the monthly draws. There are still plenty of numbers if you wish to join! Please contact Mike or one of the other PCC members for an application form. The form and full details of the scheme are on the village website.

Watch out for a talk on bats and a social evening later this year - not on the same day!

If you are concerned by the lack of gates at the end of the church path, they have not been stolen! They were removed to enable a thorough cleaning of the path and their fate is under consideration.

Interesting facts...Woad

A tithe record dated 1610, shows that woad was grown in Cottisford and Hethe. A Master Edward Ewere and Sir William Cope "both had wode growing in Hethe which amounted to more than all the wode grown in Cottisford". The Cope family owned Hanwell Castle (near Banbury) and first acquired the Shelswell Estate in 1595 selling it in the 1680s. The Shelswell Estate at that time included Hospital Farm which was originally owned in the 12th Century by St Bartholomew's Hospital (London) and was amalgamated into Montague Farm in the 20th Century. This was the probable location for the growing of woad.

Woad is a native of the Mediterranean and belongs to the family Cruciferae (the brassicas), as do broccoli, cabbage and rape seed. The neon yellow flowers, which appear in May, have a wonderful fragrance and attract plenty of bees. Grown in Europe since the Stone Age it has a long association with East Anglia, notably with Boudicca and the Iceni tribe who it is said used woad to colour their faces before going into battle. Woad is also believed to be antiseptic, and it may have been used to help heal battle wounds.

October	Morag Westworth

MIXBURY CHURCH CLEANING ROTA (Revised 2023 - 2024)

Thank you to everyone who has volunteered to go on this rota in order to clean and to help maintain the church throughout the year. Your hard work is very much appreciated.

August	Rebecca Ayres and Eryl Tobin
September	Giovanna Holdcroft and Tanya Howroyd

If anyone else would like to help with cleaning, we would be very grateful for extra volunteers. This would help to lighten the load on otherwise busy people. The job only requires a couple of hours simple cleaning in your allotted month, and if you can find a partner or join a group of two to make groups of three, it can be a pleasant way to involve yourself in the village and familiarise yourself with our beautiful church. For more information please contact - Julie Mitchell on 01280 – 847769

MIXBURY POP UP PUB NIGHTS : The Mixbury Pop Up Pub has been a tradition in the village for many years now and is a lovely way to socialise and make friends. The hosts provide the venue, glasses and a few nibbles and the guests arrive with their own drinks. If you are interested in hosting a pub night please contact Tanya – email: markandtanya@yahoo.co.uk.

BOOKS

Don't forget there are lots of books in the Church for villagers to borrow and exchange – straight ahead when you go in the door located just in front of the North Door.

NEW HOME

A big Mixbury welcome to Becca, Farley and Oona the dog who have recently moved in to the village. We hope you will be very happy here.

Midweek Holy Communion with soup lunch – Thursday, 6th July

This is a lovely shortened communion service. Alice led the service assisted by Liz and the sermon by Alice was from an article in Pathfinder. The congregation is made up of people from across the Benefice who like this midday service.

After the service we moved to the tables set up for lunch of bread rolls and soup followed by pudding. There was lots of chat catching up with current events and news from other villages. Shelswell-by-the-Sea was going to be on Monday and Tuesday 10th and 11th July and on the latter an outing was planned to visit Rev Yvonne Mullins who used to be our curate.

Thank you to Alice and Liz for preparing and cooking lunch and also to everyone who helped in any way.

Rena Andrews

Food for Thought – Sunday, 2nd July

We enjoyed a shared breakfast with lots of chat about our busy summer season (so far) and many of us have already been away on exciting holidays or have some to come. Congratulations to Amanda and Scott on their upcoming 25th Wedding Anniversary and we loved hearing about their special holiday to celebrate this milestone.

Flora played one of our favourite hymns 'Seek Ye First' and we talked about what we can do more of (and less of). Most of the conversation revolved around the good things we see in our villages and towns and we considered how we could be more of a part of these things and to 'gossip the good'.

Our next service will be at 10am on Sunday 6th August with breakfast and short informal worship. Why not come along and try it?

Kelly Holden-White

Stoke Lyne 100 Club – July Results

Results not available at the time of the magazine deadline.

Film events in St. Peter's Church, Stoke Lyne– July

Our film events proved popular this month, with a small gathering of children and parents for our 'Strike Day' showing of Home Alone. The popcorn went down well and we look forward to 'Matilda' on 11th August at 1.30pm.

Our 12+ film was 'Top Gun Maverick' and was well attended, and again, the popcorn went down well! The film was fantastic and the cinema experience was enjoyed by all with the new sound system bringing the aviation antics of 'Maverick' to life. We look forward to seeing many of you on Friday 11th August at 6.30pm for 'James Bond: No Time to Die'. Entrance is just £3 (including popcorn and soft drink) if you book ahead (contact Kelly kholdenwhite@aol.com) Cash or chip and pin payment available on the night, or pay ahead using the bank details:

Stoke Lyne W.I. – Thursday, 20th July

Report to follow in next month's magazine as the July meeting was beyond this month's magazine deadline.

A look at the other Holt Memorials in the Church (a follow up to last month's piece on William Holt's memorial)

Ralph Holt's memorial can be found on the wall above the organ. It is very difficult to get an unobstructed view of it without taking your chances on the steps up to the tower.

According to the Holt family tree in J. C. Blomfield 's section on Stoke Lyne in the "History of the Present Deanery of Bicester," series, published in 1894, Ralph was the son of Thomas Holt and Susan Petty. He was the great x 2 grandson of William Holt whose memorial is to the left of the altar which was discussed in the July issue of Shelswell News.

The 2017 edition of "The Buildings of England" describes it as: "Large tablet of grey marble, with Composite columns and swan-neck pediment". I had to google what was meant by these descriptive terms. A Composite column is "a Roman-designed column style that combines characteristics of the ancient Greek-era Ionic and the Corinthian columns. Composite columns have highly decorated capitals (tops)" while a swan-neck pediment is: "a broken pediment, the outline of which consists of a pair of S-curves tangent to the cornice level at the ends of the pediment, rising to a pair of scrolls on either side of the centre, where a finial often rises between the scrolls."

The inscription on the tablet reads: To the Memory of Ralph Holt Esq Lord of this manor who died Aug y 22nd 1702 in ye 65th year of his age. By his first wife Susanna, daughter of John Risley Esq. He had one daughter Susanna. By his second wife Susanna daughter of Francis Dodsworth Esq he had 7 children. Charles (who erected this monument), Elizabeth, Mary, William, Susanna, Thomas & Frances.

Ralph married his first wife, Susanna Risley, on 26th September 1659 at Chetwode. Their marriage did not last long: she died on 19th March 1660, aged about 20, perhaps as a result of complications arising from giving birth to their child Susannah. Susanna (Senior) is commemorated in St Mary and St Nicholas Church in Chetwode – an image of the memorial tablet can be found on the FindaGrave website:

<https://www.findagrave.com/memorial/229747853/susan-holt>.

The inscription reads: “Here lyeth expecting a joyful Resurrection, the body of Susan, one of the daughters of Thomas Risley, of Chetwode, Esq., late the wife of Ralph Holt, of Stoke Lyne, in the County of Oxford, Esqr, who departed this mortal life the 19th of March, 1660, leaving behind her an only daughter.”

His second wife Susanna Dodsworth is buried in the St Peter’s church and commemorated on a stone slab behind the altar:

Blomfield points out that it has been “removed from its original position”. He states that Ralph and Susanna married in Buckingham in 1664. From the Stoke Lyne burials register Susanna was buried on 16th January 1677. She would have been aged about 34 having been baptised in Whaddon on 26th August 1643.

According to the Victoria County History Ralph Holt became High Sheriff of Oxfordshire in 1678 (the appointment was listed in the London Gazette for November of that year), and held the manor until his death in 1702. He was succeeded by his son Charles, the last of the male line of the family, who probably held the manor until his death in 1731. Blomfield offers this account of Ralph: “In the public strife of his early life he was a staunch Royalist. A story is current that having done some good service to Charles II, the King offered to bestow upon him a baronetcy or knighthood, as a mark of royal favour. But he declined the proffered honour, only asking that he might be allowed to wear his coat of arms on a bird’s breast”. This was discussed in my article “Coles, Hawks and Stoke Lyne Manor House”. which was published in the July 2021 issue of Shelswell News.

Ralph’s sister Susannah Holt is also commemorated in the church on a slab in the floor of the chancel. She married the Rev. Edmund Major of Cowley. As the inscription says, she died on 14th July 1704.

You will see from the photographs that both Susanna Holt née Dodsworth and Susanna Major née Holt have the same set of symbols in the shields depicted on their memorial slabs but on opposite sides, namely three diagonal “fleurs-de-lis of the field” which can also be found in William Holt’s “achievement” by the altar. These seem to date back to the Holts of Gristlehurst near Bury in Lancashire from whom Blomfield states that William’s father Robert was descended. Wikipedia in an article entitled “Women in Heraldry” explains:

When married, a woman has the option of uniting her arms with those of her husband in what are called marital arms; their arms are impaled, meaning they are placed side by side in the same shield, with those of the man on the dexter (left, as seen from the front) and those of his wife on the sinister (right, as seen from the front).

If you click on the link provided above to look at the image of the memorial to Ralph’s first wife in Chetwode church you will see that her arms, too, have the three diagonal “fleurs-de-lis” on the same side as those of his second wife’s.

Susanna/Susannah seems to have been a popular female name of the time. The “Behind the Name” website gives this account of the name: “From ‘Sousanna’, the Greek form of the Hebrew name ‘Shoshannab’. This was derived from the Hebrew word ‘shosban’ meaning ‘lily’ ... In the Old Testament Apocrypha this is the name of a woman falsely accused of adultery. The prophet Daniel clears her name by tricking her accusers, who end up being condemned themselves. It also occurs in the New Testament belonging to a woman who ministers to Jesus.” It adds: “As an English name, it was occasionally used during the Middle Ages in honour of the Old Testament heroine. It did not become common until after the Protestant Reformation, at which time it was often spelled Susan.”

While I was researching this article I discovered that the wall memorial to Ralph Holt (d. 1702) had been wrongly described as “Wall memorial to Susannah Holt d.1704” on the “National Heritage List for England” (NHLE) entry for St Peter’s church which appears on the “Historic England” website. As this listing is often cited by other websites I decided to email them to point out the error, supplying photographic evidence to back up my claim, and was surprised how quickly they responded and corrected the entry - so if anyone spots anything amiss with any entry anywhere on the NHLE, it is not “set in stone” and can be amended.

Bible Bite

A short story from the Bible

It can be read in the Bible in Matthew chapter 13: 24-30, 36-43

Jesus told this story to help explain what his Kingdom, the Kingdom of Heaven, is like. . .

A farmer's workers sowed good wheat seed in his field.

At night an enemy came and scattered weed seeds

When the seeds sprouted they looked the same

When the plants grew bigger the workers spotted the weeds

Wheat      Weeds (Darnel)

They asked the farmer

How did this happen?

An enemy did this

We'll pull up the weeds!

No, you might pull up some wheat with them. Wait until harvest time

You will be able to sort them out, and put the wheat in the barn . . . and burn the weeds

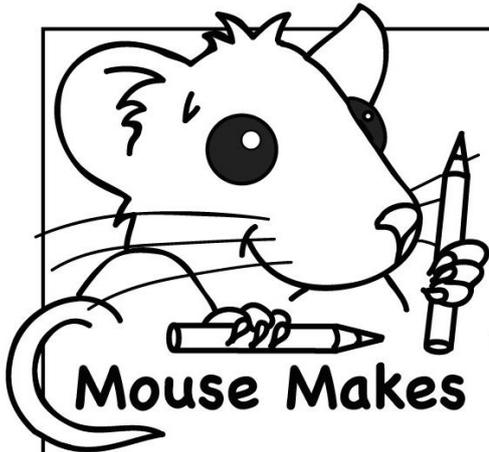

People asked

What does this story mean?

The field is the world and the good seeds are the good people

The weed seeds are the evil people. At the end of time they will be separated.

The angels will bring the good people to me in heaven.

Mouse Makes

After Jesus miraculously fed 5,000+ people from two fish and five loaves, he sent his disciples off in a boat across the Sea of Galilee before going up a mountain by himself. Later in the night, as the boat was being blown and buffeted by the wind, Jesus came miraculously walking on the water towards them...
